DR. FORBES BOTTOMLY

"What is a Saint anyway?" I inquired one day from one of your fellow students. "A Saint," he replied jokingly, "is one who goes marching in!" From the more serious part of our discussion, however, I gathered that his idea of a Saint was far deeper than that, and that the idea symbolized the high goals which he hoped to reach in life.

You seniors understand what a Saint is because you have been establishing in the foundation of your lives the qualities which when put together make a Saint. You have been developing your minds and intellects in your classes; you have been taking part in sports and other school activities. Through your high school years you have applauded the honor winners, cheered for the teams, and congratulated the election victors. You have developed a healthy pride in yourself and in your school; you have learned to understand and respect other opinions; and you have built into your lives some pillar ideals and some undergirding values.

Two thousand years ago a great teacher told us a story about two men who set about the task of building a house. The results, you recall, were disastrous for the one who built his upon the sand; but the house of the wise man who established his upon the rock stood firm against the storms. The strength of a building depends upon its foundation. It is so also with the building of a life. A life built upon a strong foundation of high purpose and understanding will meet ably the challenge and tests of the future.

Jefferson High's eleventh year of history is ahead. Soon you too will be a part of the Saints who go marching...out and on. Keep building, Saints!

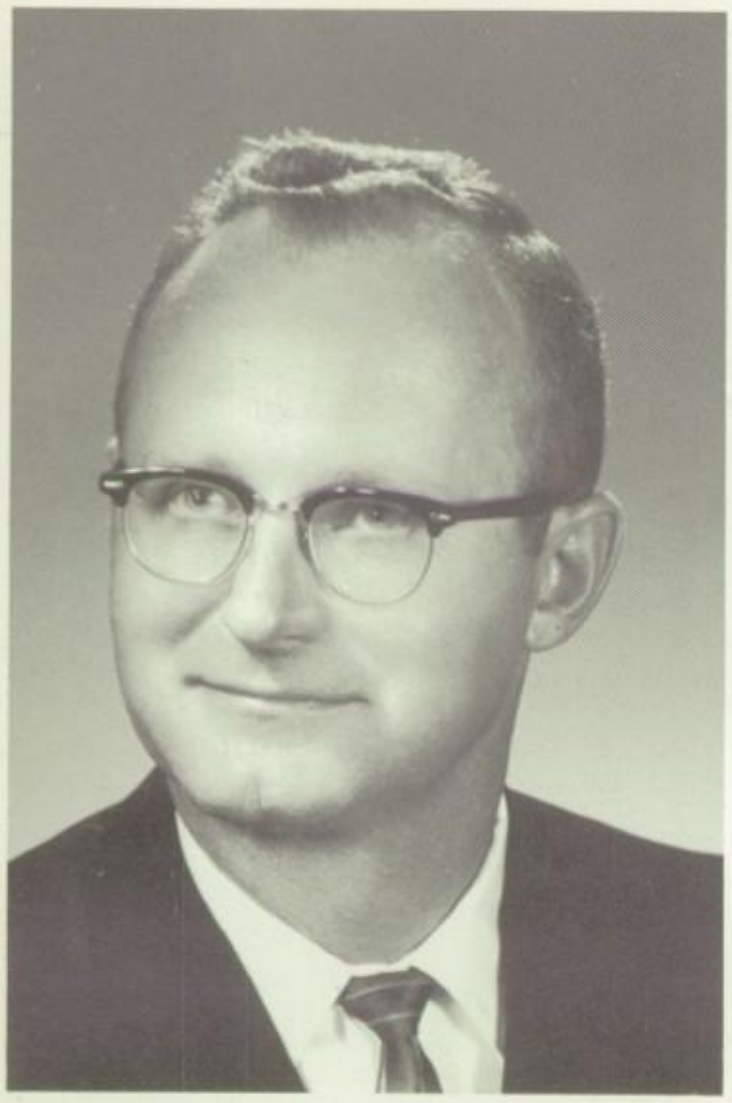
TOP FOUR LEAD SAINTS



PAUL PHILLIPS, Principal; B.A., Nebraska State Teachers College.

GRACE GILMORE, Counselor; B.A., M.A., Colorado College, University of Colorado.

MICHAEL PAPPAS, Assistant Principal; A.B., M.A., Colorado State College, Eastern New Mexico University, Converse College.

TOM JENKINS, Counselor; B.A., M.A., Michigan State University.

FOREWORD

"The foundation of every state is the education of its youth."--Diogenes

Armed with the basic tools of his trade, the sophomore begins the construction of his life. With faith in his own ability and courage, the sophomore begins to break the ground that will someday hold his very existence. It is often a slow, tedious and seemingly unrewarding job. But at the end of his sophomore year, he finds that he has accomplished his primary goal and is now ready for his junior year.

As a junior, the student enters the second stage of development. During this year, he firmly plants the pillars, gained from knowledge and experience, into the achievements of his sophomore year. Through diligence, he completes his secondary goal and prepares for his senior year.

During his senior year, the student finds many alternatives from which to choose. He finds this period of time the year of decision, expectation, and new experiences. Throughout this final year, the senior fulfills his final goal by laying the foundation from which he will build his future years.

The annual staff of 1964-1965 dedicates the following pages to the building of a Saint.

Don't move Deb (Kinda late but these others) just remember me when ya look at this I'm not in it but remember me anyway. Keep Jim happy & say hi for me & I'm sorry if I caused him any trouble I'm dog campin in your locker yet. Have this summer so be on the look out. Love ya Jes

The teacher's role is important in the life of a Saint. To be really "in," a teacher must show enthusiasm, interest, and concern toward the building of individuals.

Debbie,
It has been a great pleasure knowing you for this short time. Your high school career is just beginning. It is a lot of fun and you will learn a great deal. Make the most of it.

The Junior Class will take over the reins of leadership next year. Some of the juniors have excelled in academics and athletics, and it is hoped that they will make a strong Senior Class. Taken in Miss Carole Windust's English class, this picture shows Darrell Behrent, Marilyn Bailey, Dave Scheidel, Mike Harland, Bill Pelkey, and Judi Strobeck just before the bell rang.

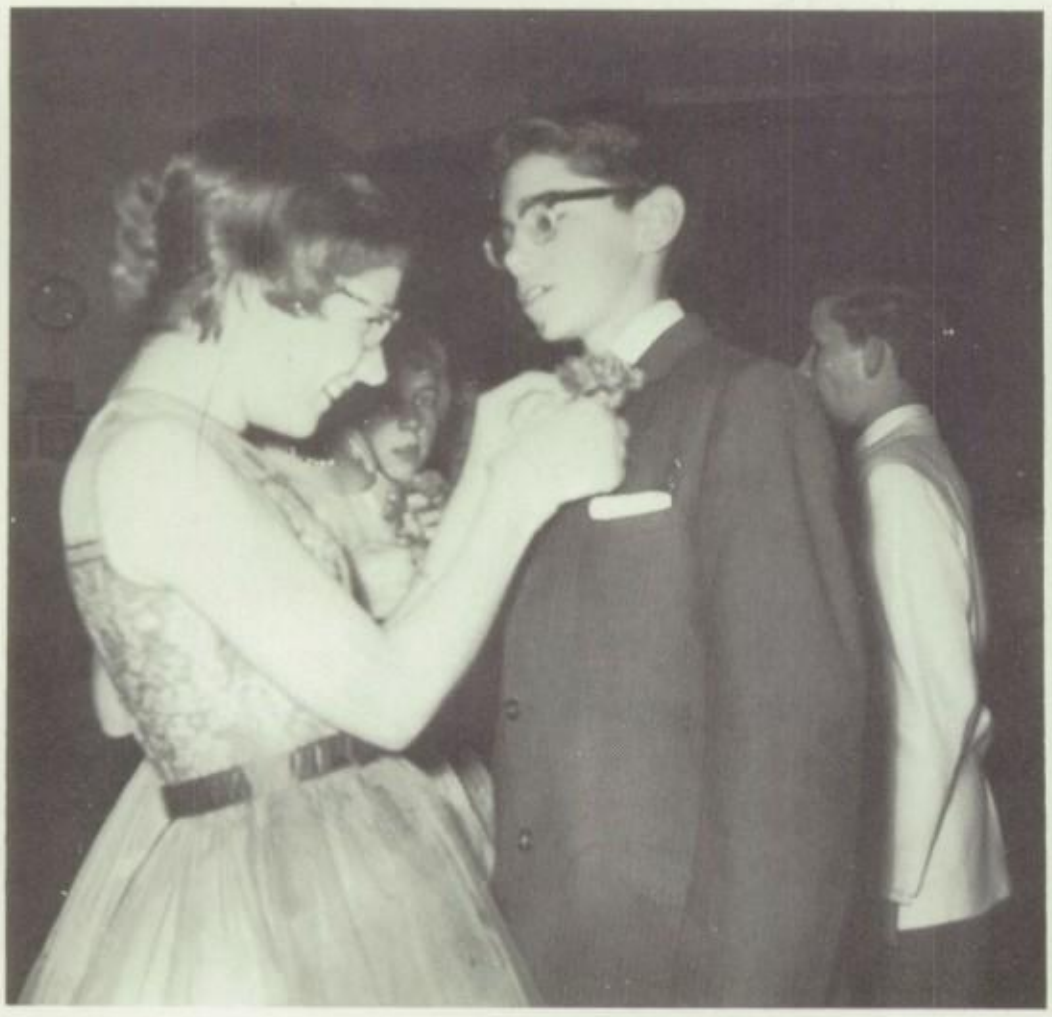
SAINTS REFLECT ON PAST



Kathy Rosauer pins a flower on Mark Dimitroff at a dance honoring Belmont athletes.

Hanging around the punch bowl is a pastime Larry Anna and Bob Ferry began at Belmont Junior High.

Remember Belmont's basketball team--the Panthers? Members were Kent Dailey, Craig Snowdon, Jim Taylor, Mark Dimitroff, Tom Harshbarger, Jim Rozmiarek, Larry Anna, Bob Ferry, Vaughn Draggoo, Grey Thye, Bob Gordanier, Roy Stage, Don Morrow, Ed Goodeyon, and Steve Moss.

At whose house party did David Widener refuse to dance with Susan Swanson?

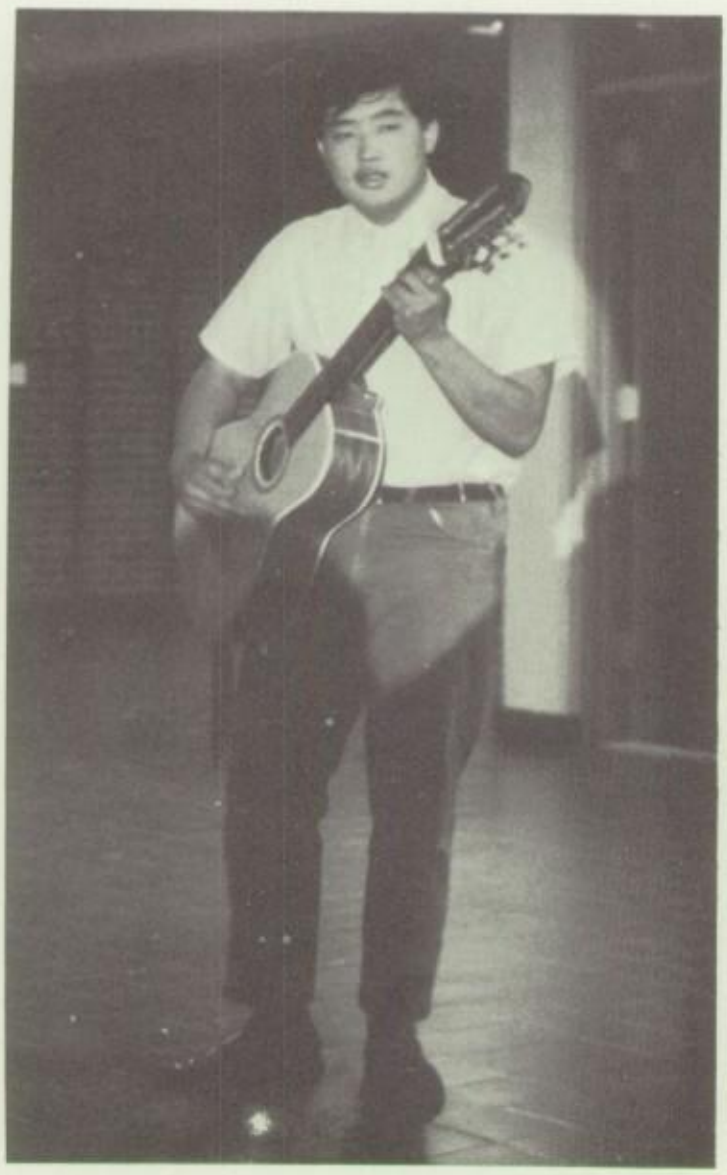
Margie Crandell struggles to keep up with a current craze--hula hoops.

By the looks of this gang, there is more than pop in those bottles! Cutting up at a party are Ed Goodeyon, Basil Katsaros, Jim Taylor, Don Morrow, Lynne Sheffer, Sharon Swann, Susan Swanson, and Mark Dimitroff.

Nobody but Pat Hunter has ever had a tug-of-war with a horse over a few blades of grass!

Marti Lord and Lynn Williams get some on-the-job training in a business office.

AND LOOK AHEAD TO JUNE 2



Bob Masamori entertains at the Sophomore Orientation Dinner with his version of "San Francisco Bay Blues."

"Janet, please be mine!" pleads John Cero in his Gay 90's attire.

One of Jefferson's most popular activities is the pep rally. Here Susan Stroberg, Cheryl Love, Kathy Burkle, and Beverly Barber present the colors.

ACTIVITIES

SAINTS BACK HOMECOMING

About to break into tears, Sharon Nielsen tries to control herself at the news that she was elected Homecoming Queen. Jim Peterson won Homecoming King. Runners-up were Susan Swanson, Vern Meredith, Joe Drew, and Charlyn Waugaman. Royalty was presented October 8 at a special pep rally.

The Saints played one of their best games against Alameda, losing 6-0. Here Jim Peterson chases an Alameda Pirate.

Mr. Gene Collins and Mr. Tom Furber do their best to help stir the spirit of Saint Jeff during a faculty pep rally.

Jefferson's faculty band scored a big hit at the faculty pep rally. Some of the faculty pictured are Larry O'Donnel, Don Yacovetta, Ross King, Bob Leishman, Roberta Thompson, Stan Ward, Nancy Wilson, Donna Harvey, John Bartow, Rosemary James, Paula Pearcy, and Art Allen.

A few of the Saints attending the dance were Ted Wisenborn, Colleen Gilbert, Molly Williams, Dennis Brungardt, Scott Williams, Sharon Cardy, and Jack Landenberger.

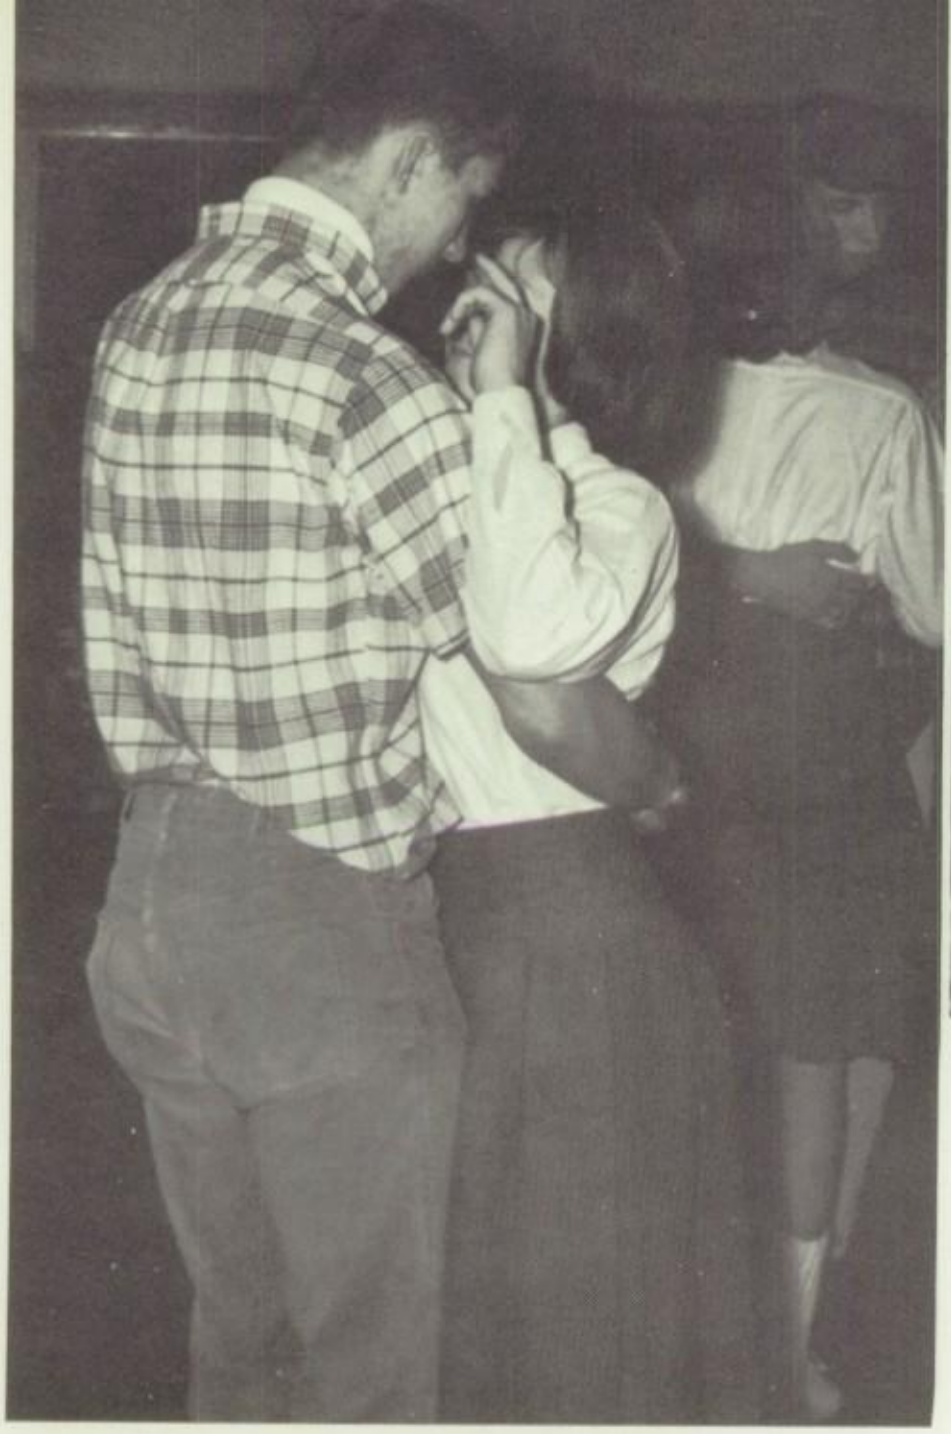
JHS GIVES "IF A MAN ANSWERS"

Pictured above are Bev Griffee, Tim Walgren, Miss Carole Windust, Pam Leggett, John Poole, and Leapha Schachet.

Other members of the cast included Dave Creese, Penny Wentland, Mary Jo Bailey, and Sue Aslin.

According to the audience, Bev Griffee and Tim Walgren did an admirable job in the lead parts.

Three students represent only a small part of the behind-the-scenes crews. Janice Gatien and Luanna Simonsen secured properties; Albey Wilch, assistant stage manager.



Marsha Carl, Nancy Knox, Bev Schuetz, and Janice Luntey take time out at a Saints' Haven.

Obviously enjoying a Haven are Dan Hirsch and Karen Richeson. Is this dance the Watusi?

KEY CLUB SPONSORS HAVENS

Doing a good job at a Haven are Jim Garver and Patty Myers.

"CHRISTMAS AT HOME"

Under the direction of Mr. Robert Leishman, the Concert Choir performs for "Christmas at Home." This community presentation is always performed before a packed Jefferson auditorium.

Stopping for a bite to eat after the senior trek to the mountains for Christmas trees are Mr. Don Yacovetta, Mark Dimitroff, Mike Brown, Mary Brebner, and Craig Runyan.

Craig Runyan and Susan Swanson set a new style in clothing for a mountain-climing-Christmas-tree-hunt.

Deb,
It sure has been fun the past two years. Remember our little trip to Lakside with Rick and Joe. Unforgetable Oh well in a couple of years it will all be a shadow, but I will remember. Keep your dreams. But please whatever you forget don't forget me.

You are an asset to St. Jeff. and keep up the wonderful work at Bear Creek next year. I will never forget your warm personality.

See me Kinda dumb Dick.

Always on the go--playing for pep rallys--performing for the Christmas program--the band is always there. One of Jefferson's most active organizations is growing in size and prestige.

Debbie
lots of luck to a real swell girl.
lots of luck with Jimmy
May God Bless you always.

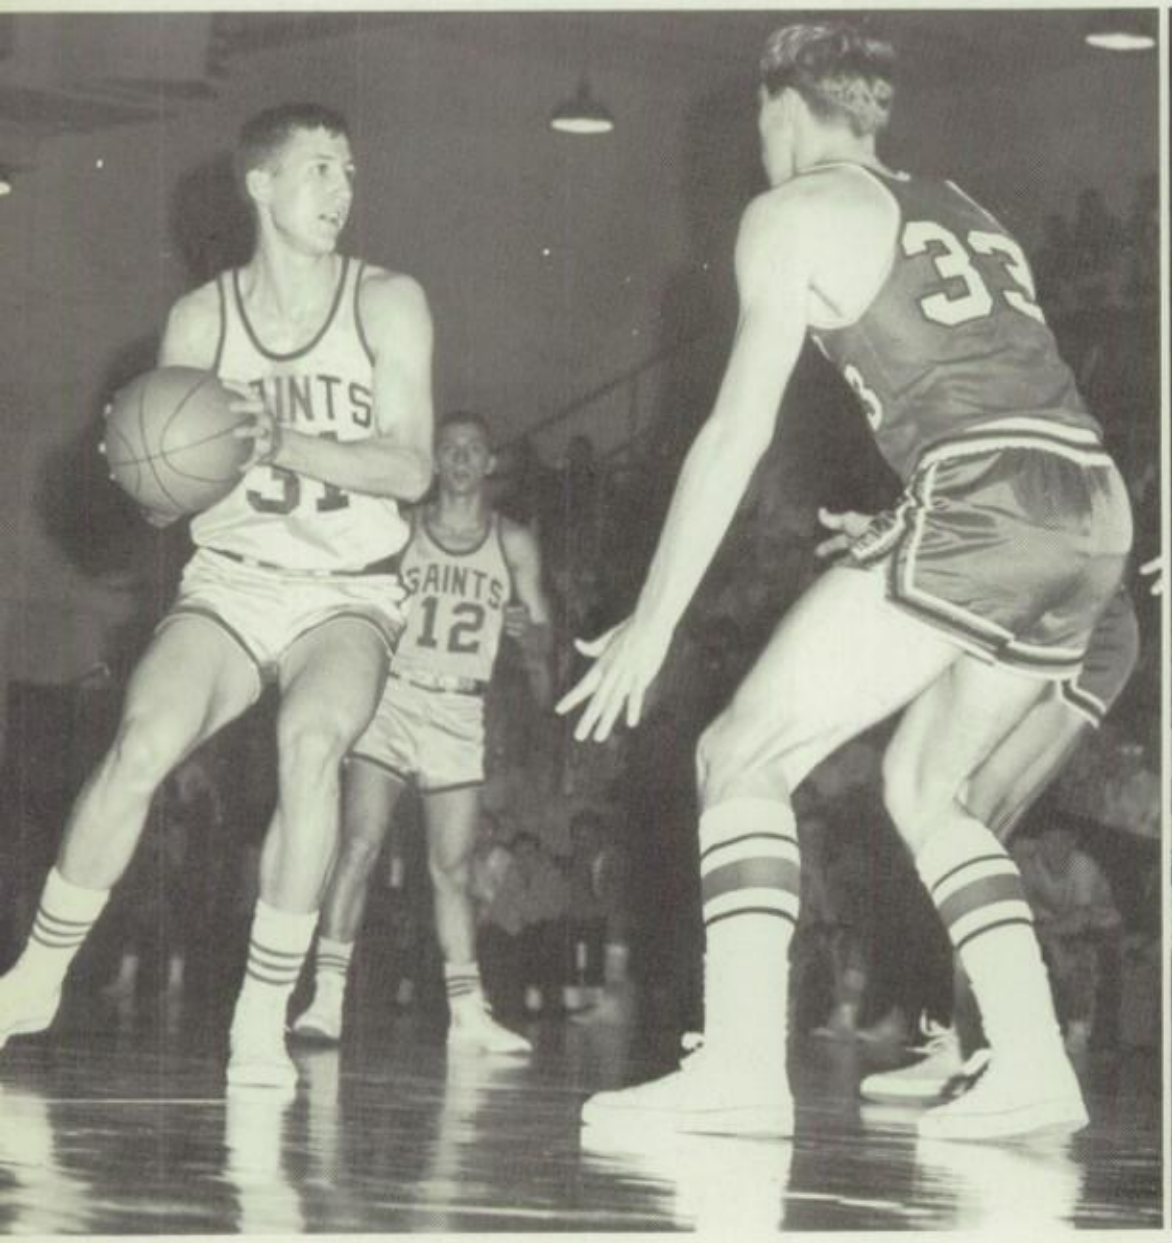
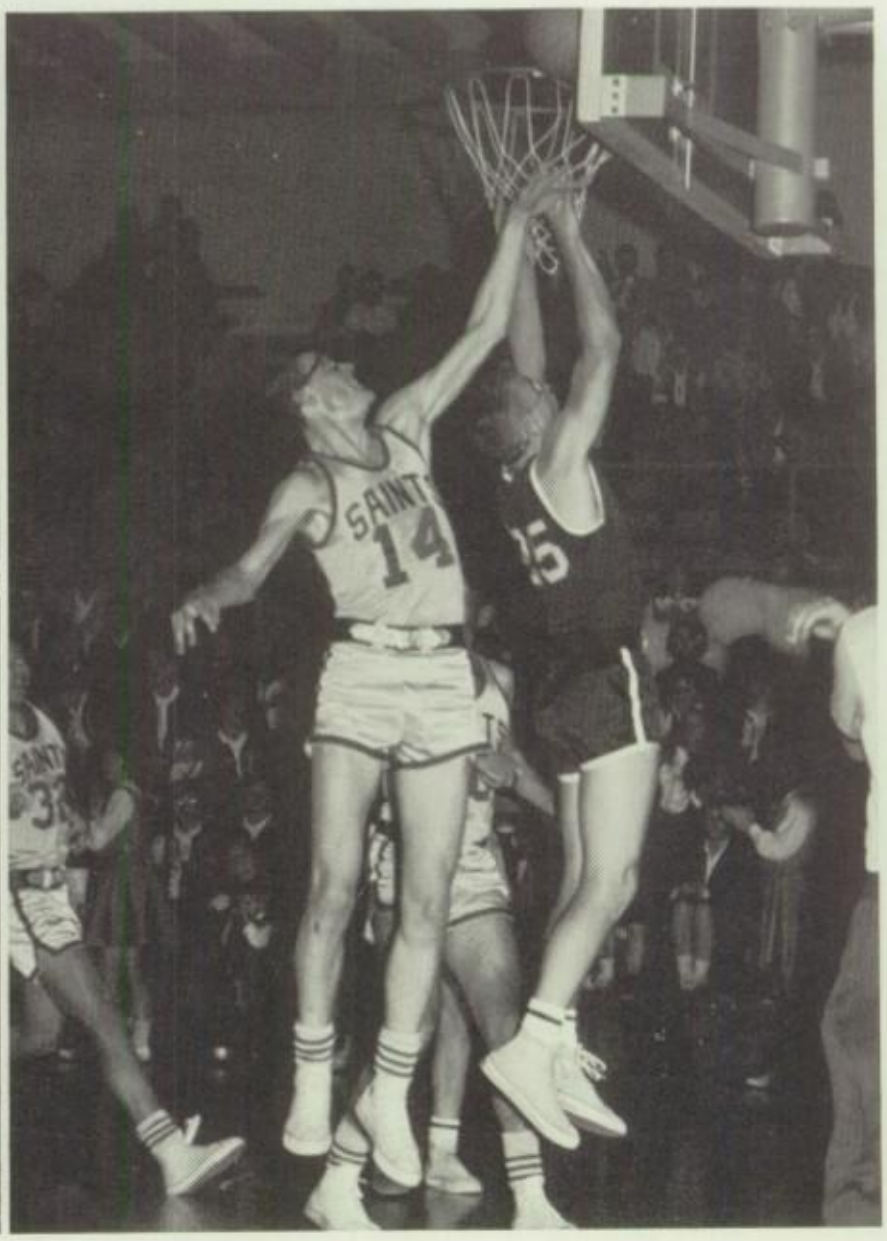
Ed Goodeyon makes a shot against Bear Creek. Jefferson won 74-61.

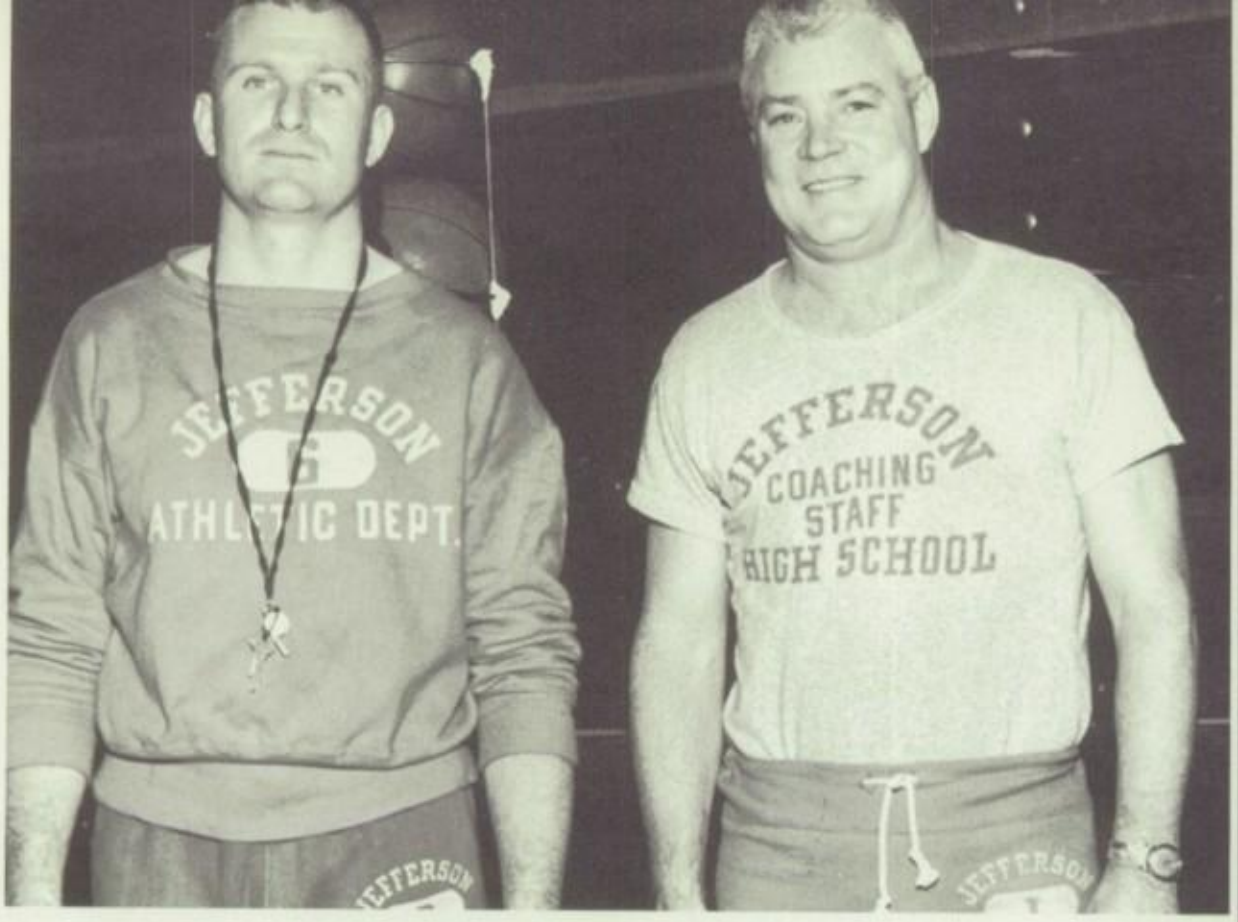
Bob Eyer, Jefferson "B" squad, helps the Saints defeat Bear Creek 70-54.



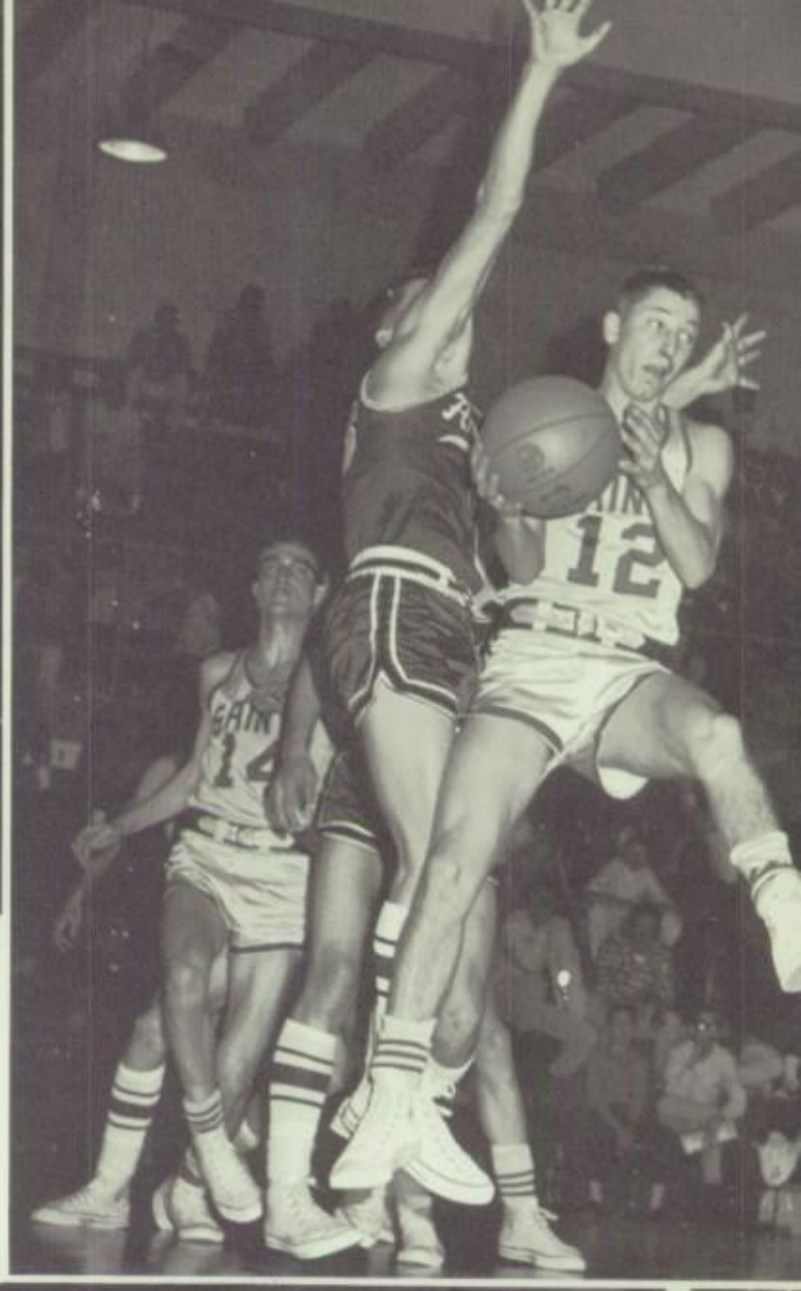
Clint Osborn, 31, and Ed Goodeyon, 12, strive for a goal against Arvada. Jefferson went down to a 62-60 defeat in overtime.



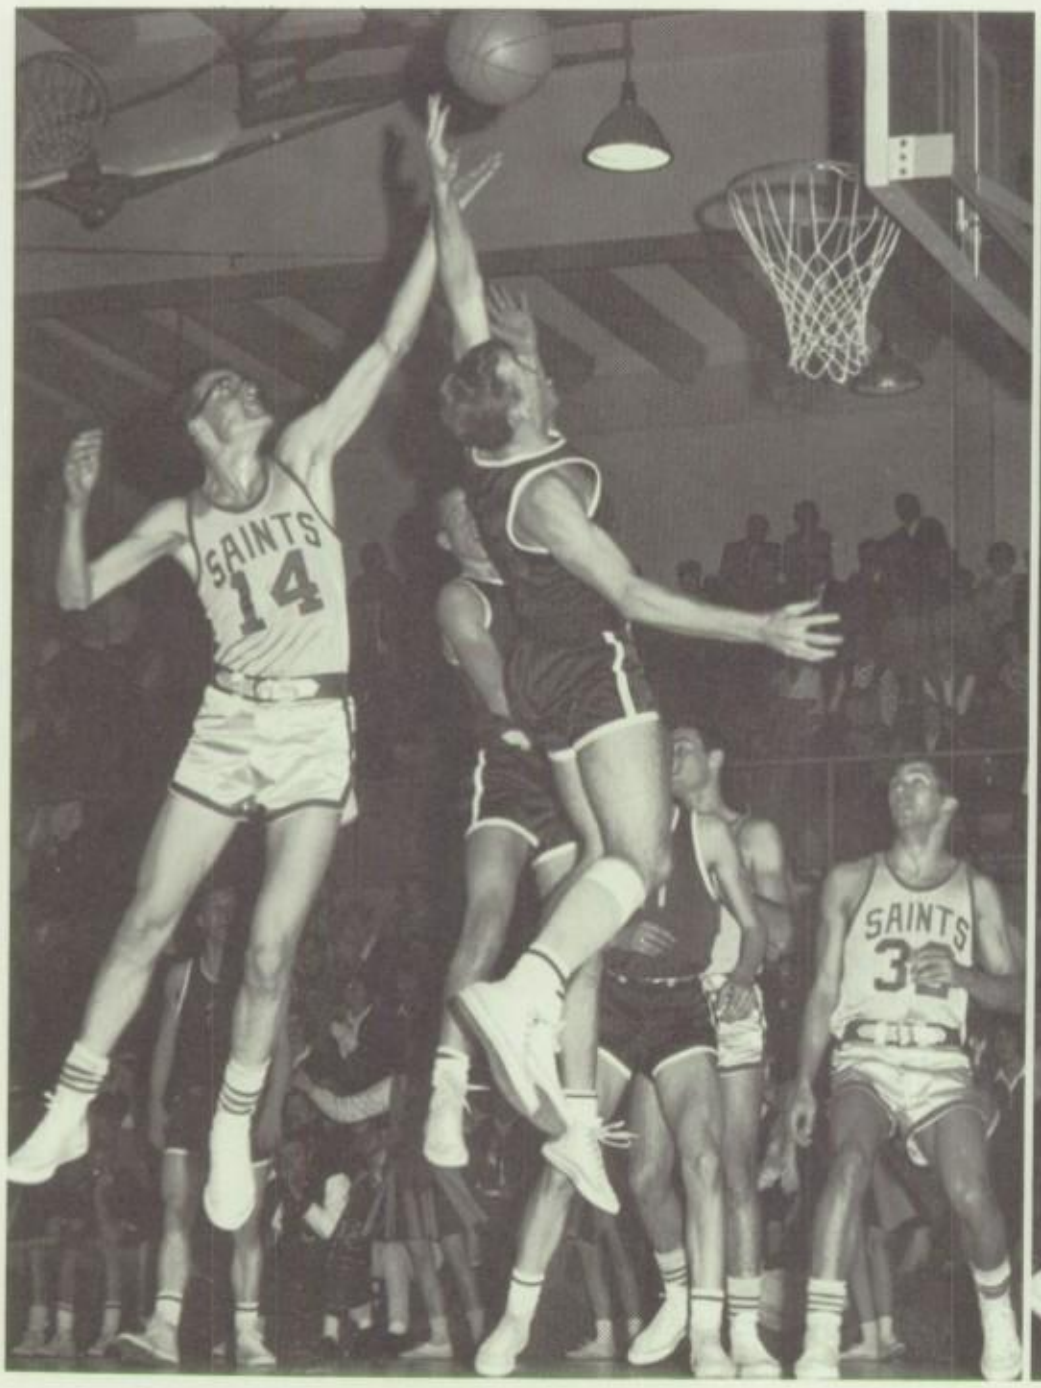
A Bear Creek Bear tries for a recovery after Jim Mason, 14, misses a shot.



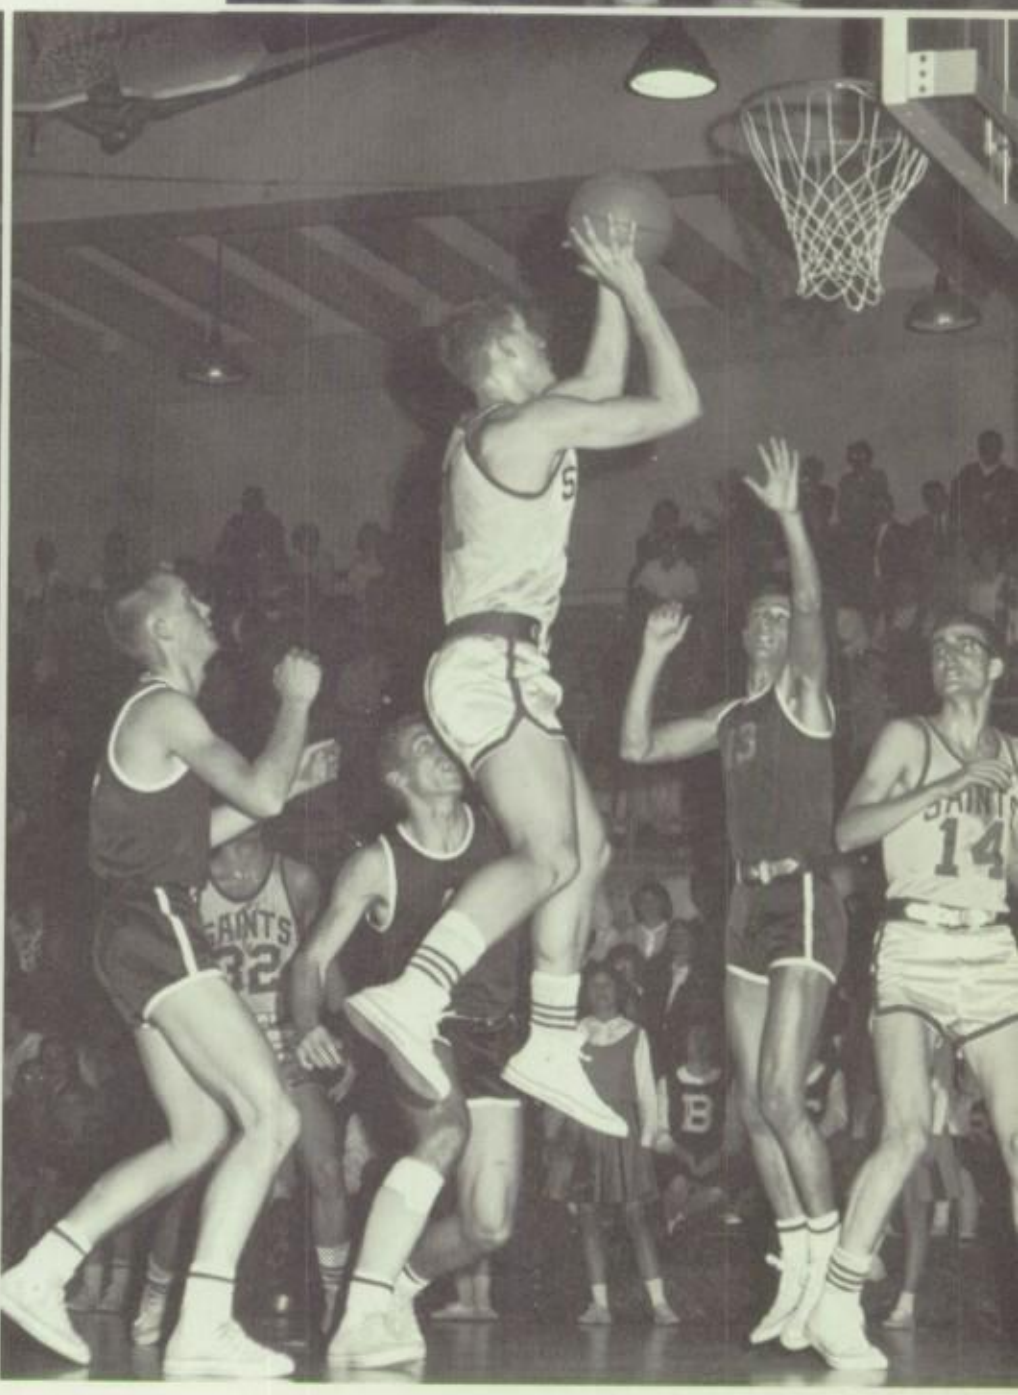
Coach Ken Jenson, "B" squad, and Coach Bill Nicholas, "A" squad, have had their share of pressure this year playing in one of Jefferson County's tightest leagues.



Jim Mason, 14, and Ed Goodeyon, 12, are in the thick of things as usual. This shot was taken during the Arvada game.

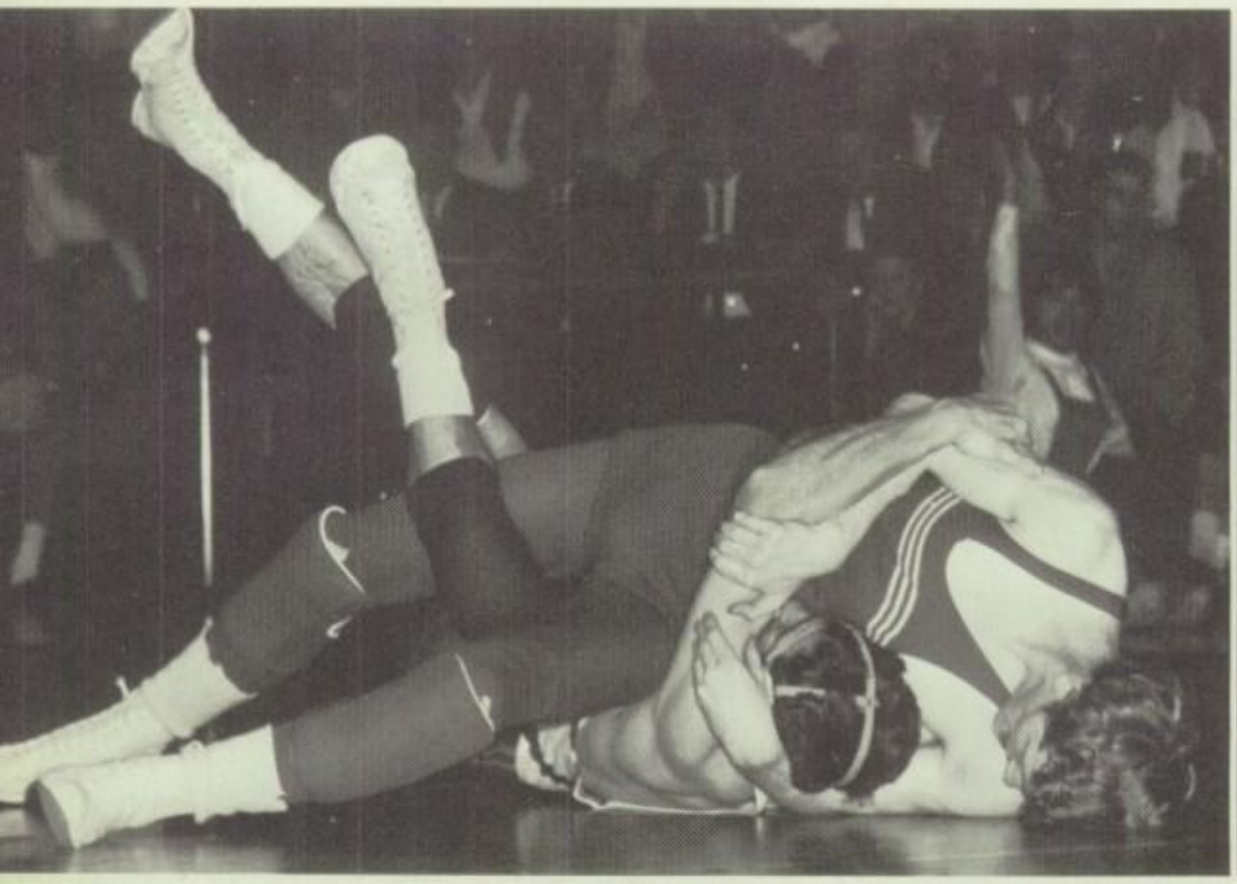


Jim Mason, 14, tries for a rebound against Bear Creek. Ed Kalbaugh, 32, waits for the results.

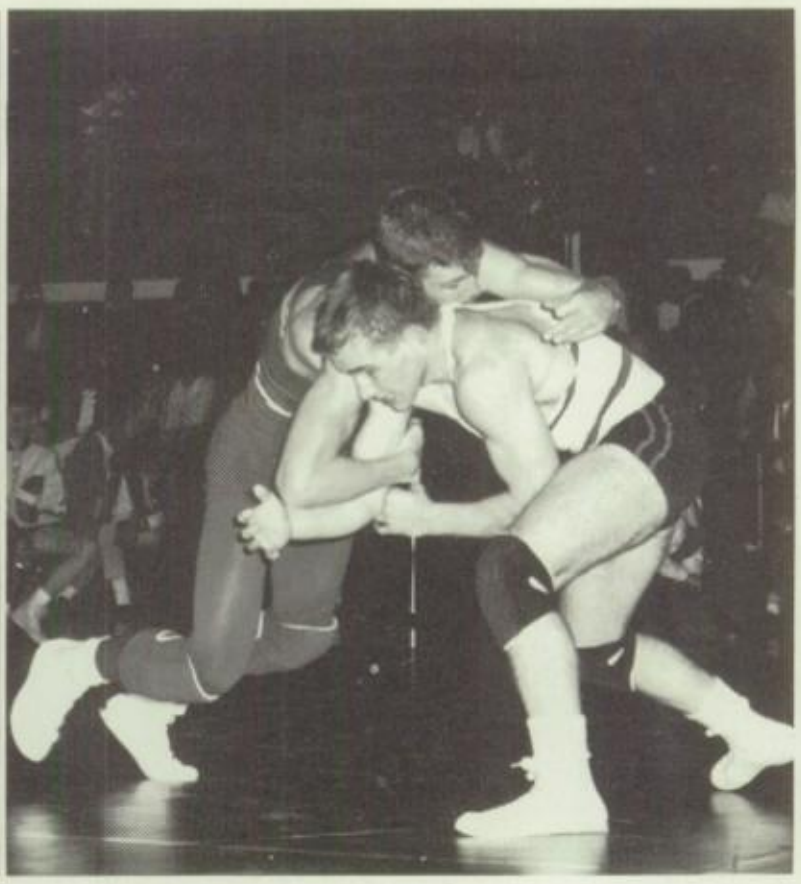


Clint Osborn tries for a basket against the Bears. Jim Mason is always found under the basket waiting for the ball.

WRESTLERS TRAINED HARD



Jim Fahey, 120 pounds, was decisioned in this Lakewood match.



Leo Figgs, one of Jefferson's outstanding wrestlers, decisions Lakewood in the 154 pound class.

A Golden Demon is pinned here by Sophomore Ron Sayre. Ron had a good season this year.

Joe Dobson, B squad is decisioned by a Tiger.

Scrappy Buddy Bowker put up a fight and dicisioned Lakewood.

Basil Katsaros, 147 pounds, was decisioned by a Golden Demon in this match. Other schools provided the Saints with stiff competition.

Managers for the Saint wrestlers this year were Jerry Salzmann and Larry Cardy.

Coach Bob Spykstra coached one of Jefferson's most successful cross country teams this year.

"B" squad this year included Kingsolver, Carl, Kidd, Plumb, Cero, Irwin, Garcia, Mason, Russell, and Joslin.

At the County Conference Meet at Berkley Park, Craig Runyan, shown here at the start of the race, gave a first place to Jefferson. Craig, who placed sixth in the state meet, did not do as well as he had expected to do.

Howard Bowker paces the second race at the County Conference Meet at Berkley. The Jefferson boys showed enthusiasm, but they did not live up to the expectations of Coach Spykstra.

According to Coach Celentano, the prospects for a better tennis team next year are good. There were promising sophomores this year who should improve for the season in 1965. Mr. Celentano felt that for a young team the boys did well.

The most outstanding game of the year was with Arvada when Jefferson pulled a surprising win.

JIM BARTSCH
No. 3 Singles

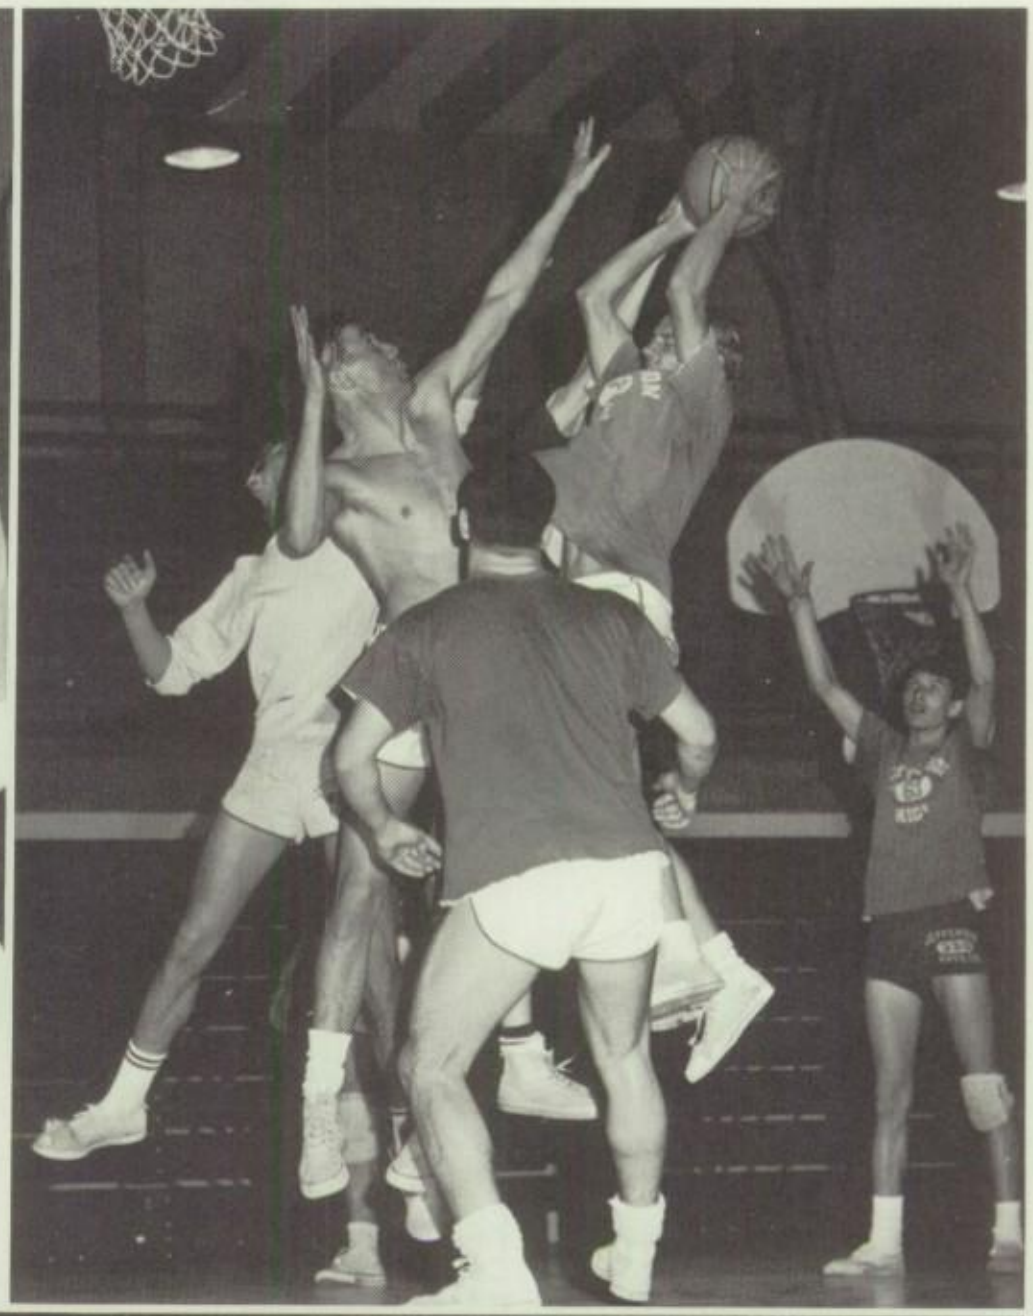
Don Morrow and Clint Osborn get ready for a serve from Arvada West at Panorama Park. Ron and Clint won the match 6-3, 6-1.

According to Coach Celantano, Ron Vendegnia did an excellent job as manager for the Jefferson Tennis team.

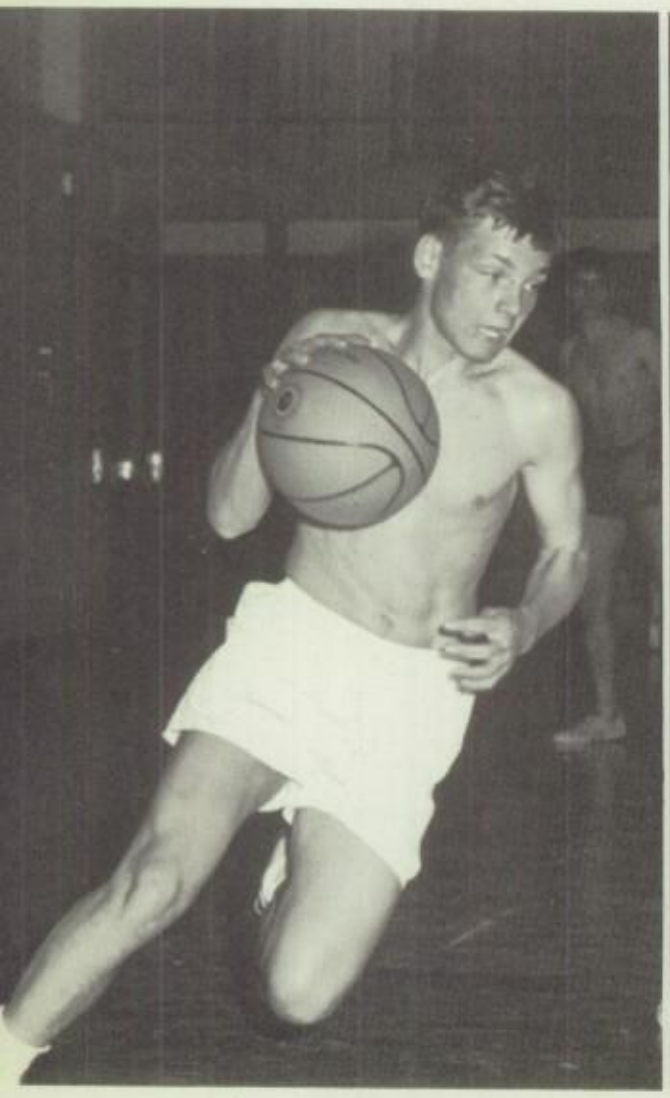
Members of "B" squad this year are Paul Fredricksen, Steve Moss, and Mike Jackson.

PETERSON TOP SCORER

Jefferson boys really backed the intramural program this year. Playing basketball here are Dailey, Lebsack, Williams, Dow, Cherrie, and Jacobs.



Dan Hirsch, Don McAllister, Dave Governski, and Larry Hirsch tangle.



Don Morrow dribbles the ball toward a goal.

Jim Taylor and Mike Boreing jump high while Referee Spykstra and Jim Peterson stand by.

Miss Rosemary Jane's intramural group pitched in to get the field clean for soccer. Among the girls who helped were Sandy Sisk, Linda Overton, Leslie Laspe, Dede Durant, Colleen Gilbert, Margo Harshbarger, and Robyn Frisch.

Showing an active interest in soccer intramurals, Sandy Sisk, Sandy Brenden, Sandra Johns, Mary Lintner, and Colleen Bremer push for a victory for their individual teams.

GIRLS COMPETE IN SPORTS

Susi Rhodes, Mary Moberg, and Nancy Knox work out during practice play for Miss Paolini's camera.

Tana Williams, Jan Singer, Susi Rhodes, Janice Luntey, Cheryl Barber, Pam Ryan, Cheryl Love, Susi Stroberg, Donna Brown, Susie Schutten, Christine Cameron, and Marlene Snowdon were the basketball champs.

During basketball playoffs, Susi Stroberg, Marlene Snowdon, and Cathy Tierney eye the ball.

An active group, and according to Miss Janes one of the best she has had, is the Intramural Council. Members are Joleen Winkelmann, Pam Ryan, Yvonne Davis, Miss Janes, Pam Francis, and Mary Addison.

Selling advertising is only one of the big jobs for a yearbook staff. Here Joan Wagner and Kathy Burkle drop by Bob and Jerry's Food Market, a faithful subscriber in the HALO HIGHLIGHTS.

Debbie, thank goodness you and the other members in our little corner circle were together in geometry! Without our conversations, geometry would have been unbearable! If you remain your sweet self, you will succeed. Keep '64 Dana

Debbie, It sure has been fun knowing you through junior high and high school. You have been a nice friend. Remember the Christmas dood in homeroom? What a joo. Well good luck at Bear Creek
